

MINORITY AFFAIRS

Frese Hall, 1st Floor • 718-997-5420

Minority students are supported in their pursuit of academic success and personal development through varied programs and opportunities that include pre-professional advisement, coaching and mentoring, and counseling and referral for personal issues.

PEER SUPPORT SERVICES

Student Union, Lower Level 37 • 718-997-5419

Peer counselors—students helping students—are available to discuss a variety of issues. These fellow students can help you navigate various QC programs and services. No appointment is needed to see a peer, and services are offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Jefferson Hall 201 • 718-997-5912

The primary responsibility of the Office of Public Safety is to maintain an atmosphere in which QC students, faculty, and staff can feel free and secure in pursuing their activities on campus. Faculty, staff, and students also can register their vehicles and obtain the required decals to park in assigned lots.

SERVICE LEARNING

Student Union 320 • 718-997-3970

The Office of Service Learning strives to afford QC students the opportunity to grow and become well-rounded citizens and provide education, service, social responsibility, and opportunities for success in today's society.

OFFICE OF SPECIAL SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Frese Hall 111 • 718-997-5870

The Office of Special Services provides accessibility to all students according to their needs. Students must be registered with OSS and provide professional documentation of a disability. Based on this documentation, students receive individualized accommodations.

Vice President for Student Affairs

Frese Hall 102
718-997-5500 • Fax 718-997-5640
vpsa@qc.cuny.edu

STUDENT LIFE

Student Union 320 • 718-997-3970

The Student Life Office is the hub for all QC student clubs and organizations. There is a variety of special-interest, ethnic, and religious clubs as well as Greek organizations. You can enrich campus life further by starting a new club or organization. Or you can find your niche in one of the already established organizations such as student government, WQMC radio, or the award-winning campus newspaper the Knight News.

VETERAN STUDENT SERVICES

Student Union 327A • 718-997-5539

Queens College welcomes and supports veterans and reservists on campus. It is dedicated to fostering a sense of community and developing a channel of communication among veteran and reservist students, faculty, staff, and administration.

QUEENS COLLEGE

Division of Student Affairs

Division of Student Affairs

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs acts as a resource, referral, and advocacy agent for students. We provide guidance to students and help them navigate their way and utilize various on-campus programs and services.

Vision

The Division of Student Affairs will advocate for students and their development by placing students at the center of all we do. We appreciate each student's uniqueness, and will strive to provide students with the intellectual and experiential opportunities to make connections.

Mission

The mission of the Division of Student Affairs is to enhance the growth of each student beyond the classroom experience. In order to achieve this, the Division will provide students with the tools to be able to be independent, ethical, educated, responsible, and energized citizens, focused on serving a diverse, global community.

“Our goal is simple: to create and build a strong sense of community.”
— Adam Rockman, Vice President for Student Affairs

Guiding Principles

The success of our students is the most important measure of progress at Queens College. Given this, we are guided by and committed to:

- Serving as guides for students' holistic development, through self-exploration, self-acceptance, and self-realization.
- Promoting active learning by providing intellectual and experiential opportunities for students to become engaged citizens in a diverse community.
- Providing a diverse and inclusive community that encourages involvement and advocates for a free exchange of ideas.
- Valuing intellectual creativity, critical thinking, leadership, ethics, and excellence in every facet of their lives.
- Promoting integrity, trust, and personal responsibility.
- Helping students in decisions that enhance their college experience.
- Valuing, respecting, monitoring, and advocating for students and their development.

Student Affairs Offices

ATHLETICS & INTRAMURAL PROGRAMS

FitzGerald Gym 206 • 718-997-2975

Our NCAA/ECC Division II Athletic program offers 20 varsity sports. Students interested in joining should contact specific head coaches directly. The Fitness and Aquatic Centers are also available to all students. Recreation and Intramural programs are available for students who wish to participate in organized activities such as basketball, flag football, volleyball, etc.

BOOKSTORE

QC Bookstore • 718-997-3570

The QC bookstore is the place to get your school essentials, including textbooks, various school supplies, QC apparel, and room essentials, as well as graduation necessities when the time is right.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & INTERNSHIPS OFFICE

Frese Hall 213 • 718-997-4465

The Career Development & Internships Office (CDI) offers career counseling, potential internship opportunities, and placement services to QC students as well as career resources to recent alumni.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Kiely Hall 245 • 718-997-5885

The CDC is a licensed early care and education program that provides quality education to meet the needs of both parent and child. For more information about registration, tuition fees, and hours, please call the office directly.

COUNSELING & RESOURCE CENTER

Frese Hall, 1st Floor • 718-997-5420

The Counseling & Resource Center provides individual short-term counseling to students. The purpose of counseling is to assist students in their adjustment to college and to talk with them about personal issues (depression, anxiety, relationships, etc.) that may be interfering with that adjustment. All services are confidential and free of charge.

DINING SERVICES

Main Office Student Union, 1st Floor • 718-997-3997

A variety of food can be found in the Dining Hall (located behind Kiely Hall and Powdermaker Hall beside I Building), as well as the Student Union Café. Other venues include the Science Building Café (Naked Pear Café), Library (Books & Bytes Café), and the Dairy Stop, to name only a few.

HEALTH SERVICE CENTER

Frese Hall, 3rd Floor • 718-997-2760

The Health Service Center offers free or low-cost resources to help everyone in the QC community achieve optimal well-being. The Center offers “walk-in” services, which include first aid and medical assessments, consultations, and referrals, as well as various health-education programs.

HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL LIFE

The Summit Apartments • 718-997-4881

The Summit Apartments are located in the heart of campus between FitzGerald Gym and Rosenthal Library. Students can live on campus in our apartment-style residence hall, with spectacular views of Manhattan. The Summit Apartments not only provide a stimulating and exceptionally affordable place to live, but foster a strong feeling of community. Students can easily make the most of the various campus facilities.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & SCHOLARS

Student Union 327 • 718-997-4440

The International Students and Scholars office helps students and faculty obtain and maintain the F-1 International Student and J-1 Exchange Visitor, U.S. Visa-Immigration Status for the purposes of studying, teaching, and/or conducting research at the college on a short-term basis.

JUDICIAL AFFAIRS

Student Union 320 • 718-997-3970

Penalties for academic dishonesty include academic sanctions, such as failing or otherwise reduced grades, and/or disciplinary sanctions, including suspension or expulsion. The officer/coordinator reviews all reports submitted by faculty members in order to determine whether a case will be reviewed and presented for academic and/or disciplinary charges.